Here is part of a letter:

The flags and everything made it look just like a proper funfair, Gran. Dad said you were good at the coconut shy when you took him. Did you go to funfairs when you were little? Maybe they didn't have them during the war. Did your school have anything like that? Our teacher was on Splat the Rat. You have a drainpipe and somebody drops a rat (not a real one) in the top and when it comes out the bottom you have to try and hit it with a hammer. I kept missing but it was still fun. I did win some chocolates in the lucky dip. I'll bring them next time I come, if I have any left.

Lots of love,
Rita x

P.S. Hope you feel better soon.

Questions

1. How do you know that Rita enjoyed Splat the Rat?
2. What did Rita win?
3. Why do you think the person she is writing to didn't go with her?
4. If you hadn't been told this was part of a letter, which two clues would tell you that it was?
